

Daniel Orr, DDS, PhD, JD, MD, FCLM

Dr. Orr is an oral & maxillofacial surgeon practicing in Las Vegas, NV. He and his wife Ali have eight children.

Dr. Orr was awarded the Eagle Scout of the Year by the Los Angeles Area Council of the BSA and a Silver Beaver by the Boulder Dam Area Council. Dr. Orr is the physician on call for the BDAC and was a member of the BSA National Jamboree Medical Staff.

After graduating cum laude from BYU and with honors from the USC School of Dentistry, Dr. Orr completed residencies in oral & maxillofacial surgery at LA County/USC/Medical Center and in anesthesiology at the University of Utah Medical Center, where he also earned a Master of Science in anesthesiology. Dr. Orr subsequently graduated from William Howard Taft University School of Law and the University of Health Sciences Antigua School of Medicine. Dr. Orr is a diplomate of the American Board of Oral & Maxillofacial Surgery, the American Dental Board of Anesthesiology, and is admitted to the California Bar.

Dr. Orr maintained a full-scope OMS practice until 2007 when he was appointed professor and chairman of OMS at the UNLV School of Dental Medicine. He is also a clinical professor of surgery and anesthesiology for dentistry at the University of Nevada School of Medicine

Dr. Orr teaches Early Morning Seminary and UNLV Institute of Religion classes for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. He the post-mortem coordinator for Nevada's USPHS National Disaster Medical System. Dr. Orr is a court qualified expert in dental and medical legal issues, and has published many peer-reviewed articles and chapters in professional texts. Dr. Orr is a member of the Nevada State Board of Dental Examiners Anesthesia Committee, the chairman of the Nevada State Society of Oral & Maxillofacial Surgeons Anesthesia Committee, and a past president of the NSSOMS. Dr. Orr is a member of the Sports Medicine Team for the UNLV Athletic Department, the AAA Pacific Coast League Las Vegas 51s (LA Dodgers affiliate), and the PRCA National Finals Rodeo.