

Frank J. Riccio, DMD, JD, FCLM, is a 1973 graduate of Boston College, where he received a BS degree in Biology, cum laude. He received his DMD in 1977 from Boston University School of Graduate Dentistry. He attended Suffolk University where he received his JD, cum laude in 1985. He was admitted to the Massachusetts Bar in 1985. Dr Riccio is also a member of the First Circuit Federal Bar.

Dr. Riccio has substantial jury trial experience in civil litigation. His areas of concentration include medical and dental malpractice; product liability; liquor liability; general negligence; crime victim law (civil); insurance law, and appellate law (civil).

Dr. Riccio is a regional governor of the Massachusetts Academy of Trial Attorneys; co-chair of the Health Law Council of the Massachusetts Bar Association; the National Crime Victim Bar Association; the Association of Trial Lawyers of American and the Million Dollar Advocates Forum. Dr. Riccio is also a clinical instructor in Oral Medicine at Harvard Dental School.

Dr. Riccio became board certified as a Civil Trial Specialist by the National Board of Trial Advocacy in October 2000, and was re-certified in October 2005. Dr. Riccio has written articles for the Massachusetts Bar Association.

Dr. Riccio is a frequent speaker at continuing legal and dental education programs related to civil trial practice and risk management for dentists. As a co-chair of the Massachusetts Bar Association Health Law Council, Dr. Riccio is involved in studying and proposing legislation directly related to Health Law issues. Presently, the issue of apologies by health care providers is being addressed by the legislature and the legal community in Massachusetts.