

Rollin Matsui, DDS, JD, FCLM

Rollin M. Matsui was born in Toronto, Ontario, Canada and received his B.Sc. degree from Victoria College, University of Toronto in 1975, his D.D.S. dental degree from the Faculty of Dentistry, University of Toronto in 1979 and his LL.B. law degree from Osgoode Hall Law School, York University in 1991. He was called to the Ontario Bar in February, 1993.

He is a fellow of the American College of Legal Medicine, American College of Dentists, International College of Dentists, Pierre Fauchard Academy, Academy of Dentistry International and a past president of Tau Tau Chapter (Faculty of Dentistry, University of Toronto) of Omicron Kappa Upsilon honour dental society.

He was an elected Councillor for the provincial regulator, the Royal College of Dental Surgeons of Ontario (R.C.D.S.O.) from 1983-1986 and served on the College's Complaints Committee for two years and the College's Discipline Committee for two years. He is currently a Councillor representing North Toronto Dental Society on the General Council of the Ontario Dental Association.

He is the Oral Health Journal Editorial Board Member for Ethics and Jurisprudence. He is also the Newsletter Editor of the Ontario Section of the American College of Dentists.

He provides dental-legal lectures to undergraduate dental students and graduate dentists at the Faculty of Dentistry, University of Toronto as well as to dentists in the numerous continuing education courses, which he has conducted over the past 17 years.

He maintains a full-time law practice in Richmond Hill, Ontario, Canada and a part-time dental practice in Toronto, Ontario. In his law practice, he primarily acts for dentists in patient disputes, dental insurance claim inquiries / audits, College complaints, College investigations and professional misconduct related matters as well as providing legal advice regarding business agreements involving dentists in various working relationships.