

Medical-Legal Literature 2009-2010: Top Ten Hits
Marshall B. Kapp
ACLM 2010 Annual Meeting

ABSTRACT

Each year, an enormous number of articles are published in the scholarly legal literature on a wide variety of health law topics. This presentation consists of a summary of the presenter's "top ten list" of medical-legal "hits" published in the legal literature since the 2009 ACLM meeting. The specific subject categories into which the selected articles could be classified include medical malpractice, patient safety, informed consent, medical privacy, and public health.
