

Alejandro Moreno, MD, MPH, JD, FACP, FCLM, is the associate director of the Seton/University of Texas Southwestern Austin Internal Medicine Residency Program. He is an expert in the care of refugees and victims of torture, an area which he has published extensively, and practices immigration law. He also has an interest in the ethical and legal issues surrounding biomedical research.