

C. William Hinnant, Jr., MD, JD, DABU, FCLM, is a partner in the firm Medicolegal Consultants, LLC, of Anderson, SC, and holds adjunct professorships at Clemson and Southern Wesleyan Universities. He is a member of the ABA Health Law Section, the Association of Trial Lawyers of America and the American Urological Association. He is also certified by the American Board of Urology and continues to actively practice on a part-time basis.

Bill is the present Chairman of the ACLM Ethics and Amicus Committees and is one of the College's Associate Counsels. He is admitted to his jurisdiction's state and federal trial and appellate courts, the United States Supreme Court and has been admitted pro hac vice in a number of other jurisdictions. His legal practice focuses on the areas of peer review, credentialing and hospital litigation, false claims litigation, civil rights, fraud and abuse, medical malpractice, product law, white-collar crime and administrative health law. Bill has authored agency comments and amicus briefs focusing on health-related legal matters for a number of professional organizations and has handled transactional work for various physician group practices, some of which he has organized.

To date, he has represented or advised over 200 physicians in peer review, credentialing and licensure matters and has argued in appellate matters in multiple jurisdictions. He also represents individuals in workers compensation, personal injury, criminal and social security disability cases. Bill and his wife Virginia have four children and enjoy travel, cooking, sports, theater, reading and their two dachshunds Blue and Elliot.