

Paul E. Knag is Chair of the Health Care Group of Murtha Cullina LLP, a New England based law firm. He represents providers in a variety of health care related issues including regulatory, reimbursement, governance, financing, non-for-profit internal revenue code issues, transactions, litigation, arbitration and various other matters of interest to health care providers. He represents hospitals, physicians, nursing homes and a variety of other providers. He has lectured and written on various health care topics, and serves as a member of the AHLA alternate dispute resolution panel. A former Chair of the Connecticut Health Lawyers Association, he is listed in Best Lawyers, Superlawyers and Who's Who in America.