

Rita Raman, MD,MS, JD, MACN is Professor of Pediatrics at the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center and Attending Neonatologist at The Children's Hospital Neonatal Intensive Care Unit. Dr. Raman is Board Certified in both Pediatrics and in Neonatal Medicine. She has been at the University of Oklahoma since 1982.

Dr. Raman also has a Master's degree in Biochemistry and Molecular Biology and is a licensed attorney. Dr. Raman has served in several administrative positions including Medical Director of University Hospital Nurseries, Pediatric Service Chief at the University Hospital, and Associate Medical Director of Heartland Health Plan of Oklahoma. She has also served as Consultant to the U.S. Food and Drug Administration.

Dr. Raman served as President of the American College of Nutrition and of the International College of Nutrition. Dr. Raman is a member of several national organizations, organized scientific sessions and symposia at national meetings, lectured extensively both nationally and internationally.

Dr. Raman has studied term and preterm infant formulas for three major manufacturers. Dr. Raman's research in the area of neonatal and perinatal nutrition and her contributions to the American College of nutrition were recognized by her receiving the Award as Master of the American College of Nutrition.