

Instructions for Obtaining CLE Credit

Scientific Evidence in Litigation: A One-Day Course for Attorneys, Medical Experts, and Forensic Professionals

(February 29, 2024)

Thank you for joining us for this program. We value your insights, whether or not you are seeking CLE credit. This program is eligible for up to 9.5 CLE credit hours, except for Washington state, where it is eligible for 8.0 general credit hours under that state's rules.

- For those of you seeking CLE credit, you must complete the evaluation.
- For those of you not seeking CLE credit, we ask that you kindly complete the evaluation, so we know what you thought of the programming.

Evaluation Link

- This is the link to the evaluation for those attending in person. This link is for this program only, not for the ACLM 64th Annual Meeting – Health Law & Legal Medicine.
- The link will open at 9:00 p.m. (EST) on Thursday, February 29, 2024.
- The link will remain open until 5:00 p.m. (EST) on Friday, March 8, 2024. Please complete your evaluations by this date and time.
- If you try accessing the evaluation before the link opens, or after it closes, you may receive an error message.

Instructions for Completing the Evaluations

Click on the above link. Then proceed with the following steps:

- Enter the requested information.
 - Note that some fields are mandatory.
- For those of you seeking CLE, you must complete questions 4 – 7. Failure to do so could result in you not receiving credit.
- Once you fill in the requested information, please click “Submit” and you are done.
- We will email you your CLE certificate(s) within 7 – 10 working days of March 8, 2024.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the D.C. Bar at mcle@dcbar.org.

Thank you!